

International AHC Day - January 18, 2014

Alternating Hemiplegia of Childhood is a rare disease that causes transient weakness of either, or both, sides of the body and is accompanied by other serious neurological symptoms.

AHC is often misdiagnosed as Epilepsy

PLEASE HELP US FIND EACH OTHER

AHCIA.org

AHC INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE

PLEASE SHARE